ADVERTISEMENTS.

TO ADVERTISERS AND PUBLISHERS.

THE AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST,

A Literary Register and Repository of Notes and Queries, Shakespeariana, etc.

ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION, $1.25, INCLUSIVE OF PRE-PAID POSTAGE. SINGLE NUMBERS 25 CENTS EACH.

Published Bi-Monthly on the first day of February, April, June, August, October and December.

AN ADMIRABLE ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

Advertisements are solicited for the "AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST." This magazine, which has a circulation of some two or three thousand, is the only one in the United States which has successfully occupied, during the last six years, the place of NOTES AND QUERIES and other British Periodicals of the same genus, and offers ESPECIAL INDUCEMENTS as an advertising medium, not only on account of its coming into the HANDS OF THE BOOK BUYER, but of its diffusion among LIBRARIES, READING ROOMS, etc., and READERS OF THE INTELLECTUAL CLASS GENERALLY.

Attention is particularly called to the criticisms of the press, which speak well as to the position occupied by the AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST. It cannot be characterized as of a mere ephemeral nature, for it is used as a continual book of REFERENCE during the period of publication; and at the end of the year the separate numbers are bound up in volumes, in which the advertisements are carefully preserved. Complete sets of the AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST are now worth THREE TIMES the original published price. The volume for 1875, will make the seventh.

The price of advertising is as follows:

Half page,	9.00
Quarter page,	5.00
Eighth page,	3.00

Special arrangements are made for the insertion of separate slip pages and continuous advertisements.

CRITIQUE OF THE PRESS.

THE AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST, in its present improved form, every man with a literary taste will thoroughly enjoy. It is well edited, and has always a rich collection of bibliomaniacal items.—Louisville Courier-Journal, Dec. 26-27, '71.

The July and August number of the AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST is out, and contains the fourth instalment of the "Handy Book about Books," with much antiquarian lore and literary gossip, such as an account of the origin of the names of States, etc.—Publishers' Weekly, 1874.

THE AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST is invaluable to those who wish to be kept acquainted with events of permanent interest in the literary world, and particularly to those who are interested in the curiosities of literature.—N. Y. Methodist.

The BIBLIOPOLIST is admirably edited, I suppose by "our senior," learned in bibliography. Thank you for all that you sent me.—S. Austin Allibone.

THE AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST, in addition to a great variety of interesting literary announcements, abounds with bibliographical and antiquarian details, which cannot fail to gratify the curiosity of the patient book worm.—N. Y. Tribune.

J. Sabin & Sons have brought their AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST to a point of great interest, as a "Repository of Notes and Queries"; and every lover of curious inquiries into the origin of words, customs, etc.—in short all antiquities of a literary character or bearing—ought to possess this ingenious and useful magazine.—Christian Union.

This publication, though nominally addressed to book-buyers, furnishes a large amount of curious and entertaining information for all lovers of literature. It is not the mouthpiece of any set, and its criticisms of catalogues and books are refreshingly independent and piquant.—Nation.

A Register of the Progress of Literature, which enjoys a wide popularity for the spice and vinegar which season its pages.—Evening Telegram.

THE AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST is the only real "Literary Register" issued in this country. In addition to its valuable lists of rare old books, and its catalogues of new ones, the BIBLIOPOLIST contains monthly correspondence on all sorts of literary subjects, and from all quarters. A most interesting and important feature of this work is in its department of "Notes and Queries," in which curious words, old traditions, ancient customs, and other subjects in which antiquaries delight, are discussed by correspondents among themselves.—School Journal.

The Department entitled "Notes and Queries," of the AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST is a repository for all sorts of out of the way, and at the same time interesting literary information.—College Courier.

To a man or woman engaged in literary pursuits, such a work as this is simply invaluable, combining, as it does, the features of the London "Notes and Queries," with a complete catalogue of the works issued from the British and American Press during the month. It is printed on fine toned paper, and is just the work to gladden the heart of the book-lover.—Brooklyn Times.

No Bibliophile should neglect to subscribe to this publication; its interest and value to him is almost inestimable. It gives notice of some of the most noticeable new books, literary gossip, some curious "notes and queries," interesting correspondence on a variety of topics, and some valuable articles on subjects relating to literature.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

The BIBLIOPOLIST is undoubtedly the most interesting and worth preserving literary record within our knowledge.—Boston Pilot.

Sabin's BIBLIOPOLIST contains its usual literary feast of notes and queries, and some interesting correspondence.—Jewish Messenger.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

"THE LEADING AMERICAN NEWSPAPER."

BETTER THAN EVER.

"The new TRIBUNE of to-day, like the old TRIBUNE of the past, is to be consecrated to the development of ideas, the exposition of principles, and the promulgation of truth."

The unanimous and unsolicited verdict of the hundreds of thousands of readers of THE TRIBUNE, is that the paper was never so good as at the present time. During the past year it has enlarged its field and improved its facilities in every direction, and closes the year 1874 with most encouraging prospects. THE TRIBUNE, however, believes in deeds rather than in words, in results rather than in promises. It points to its record and its columns for the past twelve months as the best evidence of what it has done, and the most satisfactory pledge of what it will do. All the distinctive features of the paper will be preserved and strengthened; the "Extras," whose sale has reached hundreds of thousands, will be continued; the front of its new building completed, and the present admitted pre-eminence of the paper, not only maintained, but still further advanced.

WHAT THE PRESS OF ALL PARTIES SAY OF THE TRIBUNE.

"Never so good a paper as this to-day."—Advance, Chicago.

"At the head of the newspaper press of the country."—Sentinel, Saratoga, N. Y. (Democratic.)

"THE TRIBUNE has never been so strong and prosperous as now."—Springfield (Mass.) Republican, (Independent.)

"The change of management, in consequence of Mr. Greeley's death, resulted in a change of its character, which is a marked improvement in some respects, and the new paper shows its enterprise in its extensive and varied correspondence, its full reports of lectures and sermons, its literary notices, and its news."—New York Graphic, (Independent.)

"THE TRIBUNE is certainly a remarkable newspaper, some of its issues presenting a mass of scientific and literary information which would form a valuable book, while the variety of talent at its disposal is such as it never had before."—New York Evening Mail.

"We must concede to it the high position it maintains as the leading American newspaper."—Binghamton (N. Y.) Times (Republican.)

"We know that THE TRIBUNE is gaining in circulation. A man with his eyes half open, in cars and on boats, may see that."—Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper.

"We regard THE TRIBUNE as one of the best and ablest newspapers ever published. The business success it is achieving is certainly well earned."—Troy (N. Y.) Times, (Administration Republican.)

"The greatest achievement of newspaper reporting that has ever occurred was that of the New York TRIBUNE with the

THE SOUTH.

A Journal of Southern Progress.

THE SOUTH occupies a distinctive field in journalism. It is the only newspaper in the country devoted exclusively to the development of the Southern States. It is a reliable medium through which the people of the North and foreign lands may gain correct and valuable information of the boundless resources of the South, and a just estimate of her people.

THE SOUTH assumes high ground; and is conducted with candor and independence. It represents no sect or party; it is devoted to no exclusive class or section; it is in sympathy with the people; it appreciates the vast resources of the country and is prophetic of its destiny.

A series of special illustrated numbers, treating each of the Southern States in turn, has been begun, and will be continued, at intervals of a few weeks, until all have been considered. These issues will be made up of articles treating of Railroads and Commerce, Manufactures and Agriculture, Forests, Minerals, Soils, Climate and Products, History and Literature. It is proposed to make these papers the most comprehensive and valuable contributions to the leading subjects in question yet published.

Terms of Subscription, $3.00. Single Copies, 10 Cents.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

"THE LEADING AMERICAN NEWSPAPER."

BETTER THAN EVER.

"The new TRIBUNE of to-day, like the old TRIBUNE of the past, is to be consecrated to the development of ideas, the exposition of principles, and the promulgation of truth."

The unanimous and unsolicited verdict of the hundreds of thousands of readers of THE TRIBUNE, is that the paper was never so good as at the present time. During the past year it has enlarged its field and improved its facilities in every direction, and closes the year 1874 with most encouraging prospects. THE TRIBUNE, however, believes in deeds rather than in words, in results rather than in promises. It points to its record and its columns for the past twelve months as the best evidence of what it has done, and the most satisfactory pledge of what it will do. All the distinctive features of the paper will be preserved and strengthened; the "Extras," whose sale has reached hundreds of thousands, will be continued; the front of its new building completed, and the present admitted pre-eminence of the paper, not only maintained, but still further advanced.

WHAT THE PRESS OF ALL PARTIES SAY OF THE TRIBUNE.

"Never so good a paper as it is to-day."—Advance, Chicago.

"At the head of the newspaper press of the country."—Sentinel, Saratoga, N. Y. (Democratic.)

"THE TRIBUNE has never been so strong and prosperous as now."—Springfield (Mass.) Republican. (Independent.)

"The change of management, in consequence of Mr. Greeley's death, resulted in a change of its character, which is a marked improvement in some respects, and the new paper shows its enterprise in its extensive and varied correspondence, its full reports of lectures and sermons, its literary notices, and its news."—New York Graphic. (Independent.)

"THE TRIBUNE is certainly a remarkable newspaper, some of its issues presenting a mass of scientific and literary information which would form a valuable book, while the variety of talent at its disposal is such as it never had before."—New York Evening Mail.

"We must concede to it the high position it maintains as the leading American newspaper."—Binghamton (N. Y.) Times. (Republican.)

"We know that THE TRIBUNE is gaining in circulation. A man with his eyes half open, in cars and on boats, may see that."—Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper.

"We regard THE TRIBUNE as one of the best and ablest newspapers ever published. The business success it is achieving is certainly well earned."—Troy (N. Y.) Times. (Administration Republican.)

"MY SKETCH-BOOK."

BY

GEORGE CRUIKSHANK.

Oblong Folio, Half Bound, Cloth Sides,	-	-	-	$6.00
A few Copies on India Paper,	-	-	-	$12.00

"MY SKETCH-BOOK" is the title of a production by George Cruikshank, peculiarly his own, sketched, etched, published and sold by himself.

The book was issued in oblong parts of 4 leaves each, concluding with part 9, embracing about 200 groups, comic, humorous, satirical and artistic in the highest degree.

Geo. Cruikshank is an artist whose genius has found many warm admirers in America, and his works are eagerly sought by collectors, who make Cruikshankiana a specialty; but the good fortune to possess a copy of "My Sketch-Book" only rests with the older collectors, who commenced their gatherings years ago. At the present time the book is practically unobtainable, and to most American collectors known only by description.

Thackeray has written an essay, chiefly in laudation of the genius of George Cruikshank. The contemplation and review of the works of this wonderful man, stimulate the great author to a genial enthusiasm, dilating upon the happy hours he has spent over wondrous caricatures and quaint drawings, with a kindly, even affectionate warmth, brimful of delight, and running over with pleasant reminiscences.

P. G. Hamerton, himself an artist, the author of "Etching and Etchers," and perhaps our best living art critic, in his essay on Cruikshank, says that we do not find in his works a trace of a vain effort.

Geo. Cruikshank's Sketch-Book is excellently adapted for a table-book of fun for the every-day book-buyer, and for the draughtsman and artist it is a perfect study book, abounding in novelties of fun and form.

We have reproduced "MY SKETCH-BOOK" in exact fac-simile, line for line. The work is peculiarly adapted for reproduction, owing to the force and freedom of the lines, and the process adopted is the most perfect that we know of, and the work has been done with the greatest care, printed by hand, on fine plate paper. The book is in fac-simile also in respect to size, oblong folio, bound with leather back, cloth sides. It contains about 200 groups, included in one of which is a full-length portrait of Geo. Cruikshank.

The book will be sent by mail, prepaid, on receipt of the price, specified above. The trade supplied on the usual terms.

TO ADVERTISERS AND PUBLISHERS. THE AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST,

A Literary Register and Repository of Notes and Queries, Shakespeariana, etc.

ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION, $1.25, INCLUSIVE OF PRE-PAID POSTAGE. SINGLE NUMBERS 25 CENTS EACH.

Published Bi-Monthly during the months of February, April, June, August, October and December.

AN ADMIRABLE ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

Advertisements are solicited for the "AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST." This magazine, which has a circulation of some two or three thousand, is the only one in the United States which has successfully occupied, during the last six years, the place of NOTES AND QUERIES and other British Periodicals of the same genus, and offers ESPECIAL INDUCEMENTS as an advertising medium, not only on account of its coming into the HANDS OF THE BOOK-BUYER, but of its diffusion among LIBRARIES, READING ROOMS, etc., and READERS OF THE INTELLECTUAL CLASS GENERALLY.

Attention is particularly called to the criticisms of the press, which speak well as to the position occupied by the AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST. It cannot be characterized as of a mere ephemeral nature, for it is used as a continual book of REFERENCE during the period of publication; and at the end of the year the separate numbers are bound up in volumes, in which the advertisements are carefully preserved. Complete sets of the AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST are now worth THREE TIMES the original published price. The volume for 1875, will make the seventh.

The price of advertising is as follows:

Half page,	- - - - -	9.00
Quarter page,	- - - - -	5.00
Eighth page,	- - - - -	3.00

Special arrangements are made for the insertion of separate slip pages and continuous advertisements

CRITIQUES OF THE PRESS.

The AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST, in its present improved form, every man with a literary taste will thoroughly enjoy. It is well edited, and has always a rich collection of bibliomanical items.—Louisville Courier-Journal, Dec. 26-27, '74.

The July and August number of the AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST is out, and contains the fourth instalment of the "Handy Book about Books," with much antiquarian lore and literary gossip, such as an account of the origin of the names of States, etc.—Publishers' Weekly, 1874.

The AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST is invaluable to those who wish to be kept acquainted with events of permanent interest in the literary world, and particularly to those who are interested in the curiosities of literature.—N. Y. Methodist.

The BIBLIOPOLIST is admirably edited, I suppose by "our senior," learned in bibliography. Thank you for all that you sent me.—S. Austin Allibone.

The AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST, in addition to a great variety of interesting literary announcements, abounds with bibliographical and antiquarian details, which cannot fail to gratify the curiosity of the patient book worm.—N. Y. Tribune.

J. Sabin & Sons have brought their AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST to a point of great interest, as a "Repository of Notes and Queries"; and every lover of curious inquiries into the origin of words, customs, etc.—in short all antiquities of a literary character or bearing—ought to possess this ingenious and useful magazine.—Christian Union.

This publication, though nominally addressed to book-buyers, furnishes a large amount of curious and entertaining information for all lovers of literature. It is not the mouthpiece of any set, and its criticisms of catalogues and books are refreshingly independent and piquant.—Nation.

A Register of the Progress of Literature, which enjoys a wide popularity for the spice and vinegar which season its pages.—Evening Telegram.

The AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST is the only real "Literary Register" issued in this country. In addition to its valuable lists of rare old books, and its catalogues of new ones, the BIBLIOPOLIST contains monthly correspondence on all sorts of literary subjects, and from all quarters. A most interesting and important feature of this work is its department of "Notes and Queries," in which curious words, old traditions, ancient customs, and other subjects in which antiquaries delight, are discussed by correspondents among themselves.—School Journal.

The Department entitled "Notes and Queries" of the AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST is a repository for all sorts of out of the way, and at the same time interesting literary information.—College Courier.

To a man or woman engaged in literary pursuits, such a work as this is simply invaluable, combining, as it does, the features of the London "Notes and Queries," with a complete catalogue of the works issued from the British and American Press during the month. It is printed on fine toned paper, and is just the work to gladden the heart of the book-lover.—Brooklyn Times.

No Bibliophile should neglect to subscribe to this publication; its interest and value to him is almost inestimable. It gives notice of some of the most noticeable new books, literary gossip, some curious "notes and queries," interesting correspondence on a variety of topics, and some valuable articles on subjects relating to literature.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

The BIBLIOPOLIST is undoubtedly the most interesting and worth preserving literary record within our knowledge.—Boston Pilot.

Sabin's BIBLIOPOLIST contains its usual literary feast of notes and queries, and some interesting correspondence.—Jewish Messenger.
